Dear Don —

I passed your referral of 10 October regarding [redacted] both to the Office of Personnel and to some others where she might fit in well.

STAT

Personnel advises me that our [redacted] recruiter will contact her in the near future to arrange for an interview. Also, Dick Kerr mentioned to me (and said he might pass on to you over the net at center court) that they might have some interest in her.

STAT

I hope it works out; always glad to help.

[Redacted] STAT
Executive Secretary
Room 7E12
CIA Headquarters

Dear [Redacted] STAT

Robert B. Anderson, former Secretary of the Treasury, called today recommending the following person to the Agency. The person concerned is [Redacted], a third generation STAT Russian descendant, who graduated from Wellesley and the London School of Economics. She is in her early thirties, formerly did economic research [Redacted] STAT STAT

She has expressed an interest in doing economic research for CIA (not clear whether on a full or part-time basis). Her address and telephone number are: [Redacted] STAT

Anderson spoke very highly of [Redacted] and I would STAT suggest that a contact by [Redacted] the recruiters would be STAT useful.

Sincerely,

D P Gregg
